13:30 – 14:00 Opening Remarks

14:00 – 15:30 Plenary Debate

The B20 has completed a very successful year and extends a deep sense of gratitude towards all the members for contributing to this success. Participants will share views on the B20 Turkey process, main messages to be delivered to the G20 leaders, and working areas to be continued and improved during future presidencies.

15:30 – 15:45 B20 Handover Ceremony – From Turkey to China

15:45 – 16:15 Coffee Break

16:15 – 17:30 Evolving B20 Agenda: Antalya and beyond

The aim of this session is three-fold:

- First, participants will discuss the progress the business community has achieved this year as part of B20 Turkey.
- Second, participants will discuss how the outcomes of the Turkish B20 cycle should be communicated to the leaders the next day, and how the recommendations should be advocated for after the G20 Antalya Summit.
- Last but not the least, participants will look at what the business community should expect from the B20, both in terms of collaboration and future topic areas, as well as how the Chinese and future presidencies can advance the global economic agenda.

The discussion will run in two parallel roundtable sessions and evolve around ten critical areas:

Session A Growth and Investment:

- ✓ Macroeconomic resilience, Financial regulation, SME financing, Investment and infrastructure, Energy and climate change

Session B Trade, Jobs and Competitiveness:

- ✓ Trade, Digital economy, SME competitiveness, Job creation, and Anti-corruption

17.30 – 19.00 B20 Welcoming Reception

19:00 – 20:00 Transfer Back to the Voyage Hotel

20:00 – 22:00 B20 VIP Dinner

Day 2 – November 15th, Sunday

8:00 – 9:00 Transfer from the Voyage Hotel to the B20 Summit Venue

9:00 – 09:50 G20 Leaders' Sessions: Parallel (by special invitation only)

Session 1 Growth and Investment

The recovery of economic growth globally remains weak. Consistent and coherent financial regulation remains critical to assure the resilience needed to support the recovery. Participants will debate how further implementation of structural reforms can help build the next wave of economic growth. Participants will also discuss B20's proposed policies to foster better-quality public and private investment, particularly in infrastructure, as well as for SME financing. Energy and the climate change issues will also be included.

Session 2 Trade, Jobs and Competitiveness

Increased competition opens up new business opportunities, reduces the cost of goods and services, improves economic performance, and creates new jobs. Participants will debate how to remove barriers to trade, and build a more efficient global trading system, including digital trade. Participants will also discuss recommendations B20 has put forward for G20 leaders' consideration to enhance competition in order to reduce opportunities for corruption and create a more favorable business environment for entrepreneurs and SMEs to grow.

10:00 – 10:50 G20 Leaders' Sessions: Plenary (jointly with the L20) (by special invitation only)

Session 3 A More Inclusive Framework for Growth and Jobs

Participants will discuss recommendations B20 has put forward for G20 leaders' consideration that aim to ensure that growth is more balanced, inclusive, and sustainable in the long-term. Participants will also discuss recommendations B20 has brought to G20 leaders' consideration to create more jobs and have a better functioning labor markets.

11:30 – 12:30 Transfer Back to the Voyage Hotel

13:00 – 16:00 Special Retreat for the B20 Community (Golf, barbeque party etc.)
